

Mr Jeff Forman

Drama, English and Film, Television & New Media Teacher

Jmfor1@eq.edu.au

Qualifications:

Bachelor of Creative Industries (Drama)

Graduate Diploma of Teaching and Learning (Secondary)

Graduate Diploma of Screen and Media.

I am a passionate Film, Television and New Media, Drama and English teacher that focuses on the whole students as a learner. I foster a professional and creative classroom, whereby students are given the opportunity to be curious in exploring genre, production and performance processes. I encourage my students to have the confidence in their artistic visions as well as literacy skills to develop a love of reading and writing. My students develop social/emotional intelligence, with a strong sense of connection and respect with their peers as fellow learners. I am also an avid contributor to the arts rich culture of the college. This is by facilitating the annual celebration of student film work; 'The Moscars', as well as being an active Director in the College's resident youth theatre ensemble 'The Company'. Every year I strive to challenge my students with high expectations, multiple opportunities to achieve their full potential and to celebrate their success.