Wolves 32

Dear Parent/Caregiver,

Thank you for enquiring about one of our Signature Programs here at Calamvale Community College.

The mission of the Wolves 32 is to direct Calamvale Community College students to develop their physical literacy along a pathway of elite sport performance; actioning leadership values based on Olympic Principles in their engagement on the Sports Field and the global community.

The program is a pathway for students to develop as elite sportspeople through high level training concepts and fitness industry training. It caters to students' academic needs by maintaining a focus on sports and exercise science, coaching qualifications and university pathways. A key aim is to support students' development as athletes with a particular emphasis on professionalism, etiquette, leadership and high standards of conduct.

Students who apply for Wolves 32 are required to complete the bring the following documents on the testing day:

(1) Wolves 32 Application Form, and Wolves 32 Code of Conduct Form

As a member of the Wolves 32, students are required to pay a levy to cover various expenses including; Wolves 32 shirt, incursions and consumables including training equipment and administration costs.

Upon your child's College enrolment and acceptance in the program, the Wolves 32 Sports Excellence Program levy may be paid in full by Friday 1 November 2024, or as part of an ongoing payment plan.
